Berluti opens its first store at Suria KLCC

The symbolic French men's fashion steps in Malaysia with a new concept store.

Berluti (@berluti), the luxury leather goods and bespoke menswear label, have opened its first-ever Malaysia's store in Kuala Lumpur, in partnership with Indonesia prime luxury retail company, Time International.

Located in Suria KLCC with 105 square-meter space displaying Berluti's entire range of men's fashion of choice through extraordinary craftsmanship. The store's façade features a warm wooden-patterned wall and sleek display showcases that feature the latest Berluti's collection.

The store provides the complete lifestyle range, from iconic shoes to the Fall/Winter 2020 ready-to-wear collection, as well as the Maison's first patterned canvas collection designed by Artistic Director Kris Van Assche (@kris van assche).
