China's Premium Fashion Group, EP YAYING Launches Its Global Store At Suria KLCC

Integrating the extensive Chinese arts and culture such as the use of rich silk and elaborate embroidery, EP YAYING has opened its doors in Kuala Lumpur by introducing irresistible and timeless oriental aesthetics. With over 450 stores nationwide in China alone, the Suria KLCC store spans across 300sqm with refined and elegant interior.

Created for the urban woman, the designs that are debuted on our shores are nothing short of modernity that encapsulates tradition. Attending the launch garbed in the latest collection are Chryseis Tan, Jane Lau and Indah Jonasson.
