Dior Men's Autumn 2020 collection is now in-store

Have your eyes (and heart) set on Dior Men's Autumn/Winter 2020 collection ever since it was unveiled in December last year? Good news: The line is now available in its Suria KLCC boutique. Fans of the brand will be able to shop the pieces that were designed in collaboration with Shawn Stussy—some of the most talked about looks include the array of psychedelic-print sweaters, the Dior Saddle bags in different eye-catching motifs, and accessories featuring the reinvented logo in graffiti style.
