Kate Spade KLCC Opens Its Doors In A Grand Floral Celebration

All eyes were on the new Kate Spade Suria KLCC store, where a grand launch party was in full swing. An evening of fun and celebrity appearances were part of the lineup, that also celebrated a new brand vision in line with Kate Spade's creative director, Nicola Glass. The evening's highlight appeared in the form of South Korean actress, Oh Yeon Seo, whose charms won everyone. Besides posing for photos, guests like Fyza Kadir, Scha Alyahya and girl group De Fam also feasted their eyes on the newest Kate Spade collection. There was also a booth to personalise key tags as mementos, and a photo wall splashed with the brand's new logo.
