Over RM1 million worth of 'Christmas Shoppers Rewards'

KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 8 -- Christmas cheer comes to the Suria KLCC Group as they usher in the festive season with a 'rewarding' celebration throughout December.

Under "Unlock A Christmas Surprise", any shopper who spends at least RM150 in a single receipt from December 1 until 25, will receive a 'key' that entitles them to have a shot at unlocking RM5,000 worth of Suria KLCC vouchers and 50 lucky shoppers will be chosen in the final month of the year.

Besides, there is also the exclusive "Christmas Beauty Box" with beauty products from The History of WHOO, Sisley Paris, L'Occitane, Sephora, and Sulwasoo where 2,000 gifts will be given to those who spend RM1,000 and above in two receipts at any specialty stores at Suria KLCC.

There will also be a Christmas Digital Contest called "Snapping Into Christmas" taking place from December 6 to 17 where visitors will stand a chance to win RM200 shopping vouchers from the participating stores without any spending required.

Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director of SuriaKLCC Sdn Bhd, Andrew Brien in a statement said, the Group has been actively rewarding shoppers for the past few months, especially when we unveiled our "Golden Ticket Campaign" in June, July and August this year.

“We believe that with all the campaigns held thus far, we are able to make a difference to the shoppers in continuing our efforts to reward them,” he said.

From November 28 until December 27, those who spend RM500 and above in not more than two receipts, at any specialty stores at Alamanda Putrajaya will get to pick a bauble from the Christmas ‘Gift’ Tree and receive a surprise gift voucher that is worth up to RM200.

Meanwhile, shoppers at Mesra Mall in Terengganu who spend RM250 and above in not more than two receipts at any specialty stores are entitled to redeem RM20 F&B vouchers from various participating outlets.
