Do take note that a flat rate of RM35 will be charged for home deliveries and a minimum order of RM150 is required.

The hotel currently only delivers within the Klang Valley area.

According to Chef Wan, his durian cheesecake has been a hit with dessert lovers, even selling out three days ago after he announced it on Instagram but has been restocked since.

I apologised that as at yesterday after my posting all the Durian Cheesecake were selling like hot cake and finished in no time. So today the M.O Food&Beverage Director of the M.O pastry online cake shop told me is available again. Fresh Durian terbaik just came in and We are back into businesses darling. Hurry up not to disappoint u all nanti. 🍷❤️😊

Despite being a limited Ramadan offering, the cake was popular for birthday gatherings too, the chef said in a separate post.

Not a fan of the stinky king of fruits?

The 61-year-old culinary icon also has non-durian desserts available on the Kuala Lumpur hotel's online cake shop such as Chef Wan's Apple Pecan Caramel cake (RM128), Mango Banana Custard Tart (RM128) and Apricot Gugelhupf (RM98).

But if time is not an issue and you're the sort who loves to show off your baking skills this Syawal, here is Chef Wan's famous Durian Delight Cheesecake recipe that will surely impress guests.
