KUALA LUMPUR (Aug 29): The KLCC skyline will glitter with a kaleidoscope of colours and spectacular lights and sound to mark the nation's 62 years of independence tomorrow, at the Esplanade, KLCC Park.

The Ambang Merdeka KLCC event will be hosted at the iconic KLCC venue and this year is made even more special with the celebration of the PETRONAS Twin Towers' 20th anniversary.

Popular Malaysian talents including evergreen entertainer, Datuk David Arumugam, teen idol, Khai Bahar, new age rock band, Bunkface and Asia's Got Talent star, NAMA are among the artistes who will entertain visitors throughout the evening.

The KLCC Lake Symphony Fountains will showcase a specially choreographed composition and should hold a few pleasant surprises.

Catch the show at 9pm and stay tuned for a grand finale for the most anticipated musical fireworks display at midnight.
